Closer: A Collection of Tiny Art came to fruition through a collaboration of the Noyes Museum of Art of Stockton University and Art Club Hammonton. Art Club Hammonton aims to “Create. Elevate. Collaborate” among their local community by fostering partnerships with other organizations, providing arts educational opportunities, and creating opportunities for artists in Hammonton, New Jersey.

Closer: A Collection of Tiny Art is an eclectic mix of fine art and oddities. The focus of this show is on tiny works of fine art with no dimensions exceeding six inches in any direction. Subject matter and medium were selected by the artists with no restrictions. The participating artists were juried into the exhibition where their works were curated by Art Club Hammonton. We invite the viewer to lean in and get a closer look at these minuscule masterpieces.
